

Enough...

I wish you enough acknowledgement to bring you satisfaction and enough uncertainty to keep you striving to be the best.

I wish you enough consistency to keep you comfortable and enough change to keep life interesting.

I wish you enough fulfillment in teaching to make you proud of our profession and enough discord to keep you reaching for the stars.

I wish enough smiles in each day to keep you going and enough tears to remind you how much we are needed.

I wish you enough recognition to make you feel you impact the future and enough of the unknown to make you wonder how many futures you have touched.
